SmartDB Corporation

Interfacing Studio 5.0

PeopleSoft 7.5 Certified Software Integration

Integration Overview

The SmartDB Interfacing Studio is a complete visual Windows-based development environment for creating, testing, and maintaining application integration across the enterprise. Designed to simplify integration while ensuring data integrity, SmartDB Interfacing Studio's robust integration capabilities, intuitive user interface, interactive test features, and run-time performance make integrating enterprise, legacy, front office, and Internet applications fast, easy, and economical. With this certified software integration for our joint customers can:

- Simplify application integration with a proven methodology and reusable templates.
- Reduce overall costs, project length, and personnel requirements. Shorten the development process--it's 50-80 percent faster than custom coding.
- Adapt in a rapidly changing application environment by holding business rules in easy-to-use and modify templates.
- Produce high quality data results using pre-tested transformation routines.
- Minimize impact on network and applications through small footprint run-time execution.
